

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

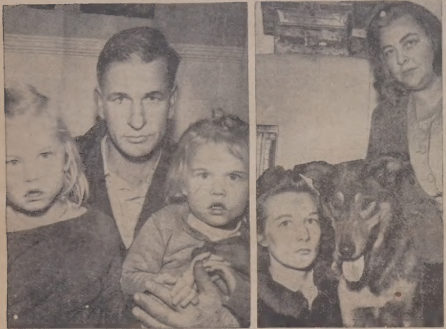

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

THREE CHILDREN ESCAPE BLAZING HOME—At work when fire gutted his home in Vaughan township, Ont., John McNeice, shown with daughters Helen, six, and Joan, three, arrived to find family safe. Post-day McNeice scratched at door, gave alarm. Two children were snatched from beds by Mrs. John McNeice (lower) and Mrs. Tom Doherty (top). Third youngster, Russ, got out unscathed.

JUST AN OLD LATIN CUSTOM—

During a heated debate in the Chamber of Representatives, Paolo A. Tosi, Conservative member, produced an automatic pistol to give point to his argument with Liberal member Oscar Oudreau. Other members intervened before any shooting could take place. The previous day had seen fireworks when several representatives professed guilt and blamed away. No one was hit.

OUT OF DISCORD MAY COME UNITY—Although conference of the Big Four on the German peace settlement in London on a note of failure, most Germans may be none the worse off as a result. Reports indicate U.S., British and French may unite their German allies into working part of Marshall plan. Here Marshall chats with U.K.'s Ailes and Bingham of France, (left).

NEW BRITISH LOTTERY INDUSTRY GETS EXPORT ORDERS—Pottery business in a garden is the plan of Lady Clifford, wife of the Duke of Devonshire, former governor of Trinidad, to keep her three daughters busy. Only a few months old, the new British industry already has export orders. Miss Atlanta is painting a novel flower pot.

HAPPY DAYS FOR SWEETSTAKE WINNERS—Sweetstake winners George Hunter, (left), and George Hunter, both at Toronto, smile happily at Harvey hands his partner a certified cheque for $58,248.97. They held the winning Irish sweetstake ticket on recent Cambridge University Headmaster, and split the $110,000 prize.

CANNOT RECALL 250-FOOT PLUNGE OVER CLIFF—250-foot fall down the bluff at Scarborough, Ont., in his car which was wrecked, left Bruce McLean with a broken arm and no memory of the accident. On his way home from a party, he regained consciousness scaling the cliff. He managed to climb it on second attempt. Car is shown in circle.

BOY BISHOP—Elected "bishop" at the St. Mary of the Angels Song school at Addleton, England, Thomas Wright, 14, gives award to the old custom and tradition. The ceremony received a 1,500-year-old custom and tradition. The custom was first introduced in 1500 through the Christmas season. The custom was when "Monsieur" was Santa Claus, was bishop of Mera in Asia Minor.

CHILD LIVES LEFT IN HOME FIRE—Flames beat back Mrs. W. Abbott when she tried to save her son from the fire. Home in Woodstock was gutted by fire which took the life of Donald Abbott. His father rushed home from work to find young boy in his carriage in the back shed.

JOINTY IS TOO FREELY TO TRAVEL—Mary Bonquet rode the horse Jointy 3,500 miles across Canada and the U.S. eight years ago. Mary, an English girl, returned to her native land, wrote a book, "Candida Ride", with Jointy as the hero. During the war Mary heard that Jointy was unhappily and disappeared, so she searched her way across the Atlantic, found the horse and put him out to pasture on an Ontario farm. A few weeks ago, when the story of Jointy was published in an English paper, destroyed, $2,400 was subscribed to a fund in bringing the horse to England to live out its years on green meadows. In fact, veterinarians say the gallant horse is too old to make the trip, and the money will be donated to the care of aged English horses.

SECRET HITS SCREEN BEAUTY—Because identity of players in films made by the U.S. army for G.I.s was kept a secret, lovely Capen Mason didn't get any credit for her work in Hollywood. Determined to crash studios, she learned to fly, bombarded Hollywood studios with leaflets carrying her photograph and announcing she was available for work. The plan worked and she has had choice roles in three films, and is on her way to the top.

A large elephant consumes 300 pounds of green fodder in 15 hours.

FRENCH MOURN LOSS OF GENERAL LE CLERC—General Le Clerc, whose exploits in escaping twice from the Nazis during the war, captured the imagination of his people, is given a funeral with full military honors in Paris. Thousands of persons lined the road of the funeral parade in which leading French military and political leaders participated.

BRUCE McLEAN told police he did not know where car was, or how he got down cliff.

MILKY CORN—There's a young a doctress has carrying a dress on a hanger. She sang the garlands from the high, hand, took a ranger from her pants, and Bessie the dress during the trip. Countdown.

URGENT FRATERNAL RELATIONSHIP—U.S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall, (right), and Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's ambassador of the conference, shake hands on their arrival for the Placitas Society dinner, given in Secretary Marshall's honor. Earlier in the day the U.S. diplomat had to listen to Russia's Molotov speech, which opened the United States. Spending after dinner, Secretary Marshall urged the British and American people to recognize their "fraternal relationship" to the world without fear of criticism. Absent from the dinner was Molotov, who said he was "too busy" to attend.

CLUBS USED IN BOMBING—A Rome policeman, (right), and a German soldier, (left), are shown in a club. The club was used by hundreds of people rounded up by Red agitators and carried them off to jail.

